I understand that my child (listed below) has been attending The Pentecostals of Hayward and has been learning age appropriate Biblical doctrines in Sunday School, Children's Church, youth camps, and special events. He/She has recently learned about baptism and has shown understanding and desire in getting baptized. I give my permission to The Pentecostals of Hayward to do so. Baptism is an act of obedience to the Bible (Acts 2:38) and is one of the essential steps to become a born-again Christian. Baptism is by submersion (Acts 8:35-39). My child will be given a private place to change into a baptistry robe. The baptistry robe is important so my child does not get his/her clothes wet. It is modest, non-self-clinging, waterproof cloth made for such events. As a parent, I am invited to accompany my child to church but my presence is not required.
